When life feels overwhelming, self-care often takes a backseat—but it doesn't have to be complicated. Join Melissa Masse, a registered social worker, for a relaxed, down-to-earth workshop about caring for yourself when you're feeling stretched thin. You'll walk away with realistic tools you can actually use, even on your busiest days.

This event is open to all. There is no cost, but registration is required for this event - you can register by calling the Library at 780-923-2004.

Everyone who attends will also receive a self-care gift to take home.
